

Bezos Scholars Program

The Bezos Scholars Program invites the country's top juniors to the Aspen Institute's Annual Ideas Festival. Here, Bezos Scholars meet visionaries from around the globe--international leaders, acclaimed thinkers, creative artists, bold entrepreneurs--and engage in seminars, tutorials, plenary sessions, informal meetings, and debates. It's a time of great discovery and intellectual stimulation that leads to the second phase of the program which begins when scholars return to their campus and execute a local Ideas Festival at their school campus. Students involved develop the highest level of civic duty, leadership awareness, and more.

"Participating in the program made me a lot more self confident and aware of my skills/success (both in and out of an academic setting) and inspired me to help others in my area. It is an amazing, life-changing, program that I would highly recommend to all juniors!" Natali Espitia, EMERGE Fellow '14
