

Atlas Scholars

Once accepted the students are a part of a dynamic three year program which consists of three one-month summer sessions and year-round professional mentoring. The program connects the students with industry leaders and exposes them to state of the art technologies and environments. Atlas Scholars seeks to provide motivated students with mentorship, scholarship, and exposure to the energy and finance industry in a performance based environment. Atlas Scholars' Students will be assigned individual Mentors tasked with guiding the students through the school year, SAT prep, and overall personal and professional growth. The Speaker Series and field visits provided "real-world" context. Industry leaders from Goldman Sachs, NRG, Vitol, ERCOT, Bank of America, JP Morgan and the City of Houston.
